STATEMENT OF FACTS

(1) As to the issue of an incorrect filing date:

The applicants filed the subject case together with six (6) other cases placed in the same box and sent via Express Mail under Waybill No. EI289769455US. The application serial numbers of the six (6) companion cases are: 08/942,209; 08/942,260; 08/942,261; 08/942,262; 08/942,263; and, 08/942,265. Of the seven (7) filed cases, three different filing dates have been granted; the filing dates are listed hereinbelow.

Each of the seven (7) cases was separately sealed in a marked envelope and each of the envelopes placed in a common box for shipment to the USPTO. A certificate of Express Mail indicating a date of September 30, 1998 was filed with the application. The certificate of Express Mail was signed by an attorney who personally delivered and sealed the box, after hours, on September 30, 1997 to the U.S. Postal Service. The box was accepted by the clerk who did not return a receipt because of the hour.

A receipt was subsequently received from the U.S. Postal Service that appears to have a garbled "date in."

The seven filed cases received the following filing dates:

Our Case #:	Application No.:	Filing Date Granted:
Case #E-677	08/942,209	October 1, 1997
Case #E-683	08/942,260	September 30, 1997
Case #E-684	08/942,261	October 10, 1997
Case #E-682	08/942,262	September 30, 1997
Case #E-678	08/942,263	September 30, 1997
Case #E-679	08/942,264	October 1, 1997
Case #E-630	08/942,265	October 1, 1997.
